An original series of clips that combines the ancient art of clowning around with the winning hidden camera formula.

Are they in a bright pair of overalls with a smile painted on their face?

No, But they will do almost anything when it comes to a stupid stunt.

In choreographed unison the seven clowns take innocent bystanders by surprise and instigate hilarious reactions. From hugging strangers to following their prey into the restroom, they come up with some of the most original pranks to be captured by camera.
