Here is a portrait of a small Mexican city where its happy inhabitants march to the beat of their own drum. In Juchitan, homosexuality is fully accepted and has never been considered a taboo; gays are simply a third gender. For example, if a boy shows a predisposition to homosexuality his family will rejoice and be thankful for receiving what is considered a blessing. The people of Juchitan are aware that they are different from mainstream Mexican society, but for them this is a source of pride. Meet with the people of this unique society of Zapotec Indians and hear what they have to say.
